STATEMENT

Plaintiff, a detainee at the facility at Rushville, Illinois, has brought this civil rights action without either paying the $350 filing fee or submitting a motion to proceed in forma pauperis. He was ordered by this court to do one or the other, by December 26, 2007. He has failed to do so. He did not submit the trust account statement, and did not have the motion certified by a trust officer at the Rushville facility. The court was thus unable to ascertain his income for the purpose of determining whether or not he qualified for pauper status. For these reasons, he has failed to comply with an order of this court and therefore, his case is dismissed in its entirety.
